Catalonia and Spain

The serious crisis happened in Catalonia and Spain recently, must be explained according to the ancient problem that cause by the power a strong fight between the elites and the authorities of Catalonia and the rest of Spain. All with emphatic discourse of both nationalisms, of the insufficiently recognized identities, and followed by some societies very encouraged because of the 2008 economic crisis, also by the austerity politics and the corruption cases. As well with populist speeches, fake news and social networks, that makes manipulation with the real facts.
